

Independent Director Hsieh-Hsing Huang holds a bachelor's degree in Economics and a Master's degree in Law from National Chengchi University, as well as an MBA from National Sun Yat-sen University. He currently serves as the founder and Managing Partner of Chung Shan United CPAs, Independent Director of China Airlines Co., Ltd. (2610.TW), and Advisor to the New Taipei City Real Estate Association.

He previously served as Chairman of the New Taipei City Tax Agents Association (2010–2012), Chairman of the Taiwan Provincial CPA Association (2019–2021), and Supervisor of Taiyen Biotech Co., Ltd. (1737.TW, 2007). With over 30 years of experience in accounting, taxation, real estate, and government fiscal systems, Independent Director Huang specializes in financial auditing, tax planning, and internal control, and has extensive experience in risk management. He currently serves as Convener of TECO's Audit Committee, overseeing financial and internal control risk management.

Since joining the TECO's Board of Directors in 2021, he has provided professional advice on financial statements, land development, asset allocation, and ESG strategies, enhancing the board's oversight effectiveness, improving corporate transparency, reducing risks, and safeguarding shareholder interests.